Letter no Fl 1181/28 D 30-4-29 from the Chief Commandant requesting that the Scheme of Compassionate Gratuity sanctioned in G.O. no Fl 7418-77 S+A 25-2-28 4 D 1/3. 4. 1929 may be made applicable to the dependents of individuals in the Mysore Army.

1) Submitted. As stated by the Chief Commandant the ~~fami~~ family Pensions and Gratuities under Section VIII of Appendix K M.S.R. (Page 237 rule 97) are payable to heirs of individuals who die in action or from illness due to active operations. In the absence of any provision like a forced contribution to the Provident Fund Scheme, for the relief of families of Military Officers who die a natural death while in harness, the request of the Chief Commandant appears reasonable. For kind orders.

MW

2. The question of the extension of the Scheme to Military Officers dying a natural death raises the question of gratuity rates in the annexure table to be referred in the case under A Scheme of Compassionate grants. I would refer it to the Consulting Actuary. It may not be possible to arrive at a definite

8) A- There is no objection to this. But this is not what the CC proposes. His Suggestion that military officers who die a natural death may be treated like civil officers may be considered. 9) Subd. The Government order of Compassionate gratuity is for affording some relief to the families of pensionable employees who die before obtaining their pension or enjoying it sufficiently long and whose service therefore yields no pensionary return or yields only a proportionately small return. In so far as Military Officers are as good pensionable employees and in the absence of any such provision at present in the case of Military Officers who die a natural death, their families perhaps need the same relief as those of Civil employees and the order of Compassionate gratuity may therefore apply to them in toto

10 A last pension is admissible to Military Officers after a service of 32 years. As per rule 4 of the rules of Compassionate gratuity order, a Civil Officer who has put in a service of more than 30 years can get a gratuity calculated only for 30 years. As such this rule also seems to call for no modification in the

(11) A further reference on the subject since received from the Chief Commandant is put up (P.U. 11) Here he suggests that the Officers may be given the right to nominate any of the members of their family as the heir to the exclusion of others, for receiving the Compassionate gratuity, as is given to Military Officers in respect of Family Pensions and gratuities (Rule 95 Appx K. M.S.R.) The present rule on the point is rule 13 in the G.o and according to that the procedure laid down in art. 530 M.S.R has to be followed as far as possible to determine the rightful claimant. The suggestion of the Chief Commandant may save much trouble on the part of Govt. and may be adopted with some restrictions, ~~as regards nominating~~ ~~women~~ to prevent ~~many~~ nominating distant relatives to the detriment of nearer ones. The Insurance Secretary may perhaps be consulted on this point

The Service gratuity and pension rules of officers ~~subordinate~~ eligible to Military pension are now brought into line with the civil pension rules in regard to

SIR,

Adverting to Government Order No.Fl.7418-77/S.&.A.252-28-4 dated 1st-3rd April 1929, sanctioning the introduction of a Provisional Scheme for grant of compensation Gratuity to the families of deceased Officers, whose pensions are regulated by Article.241.Mysore Service Regulations, I have the honor to request you to be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the introduction of the scheme for the benefit of the families of Military Officers, who meet with natural death while yet in service or very soon after retirement.

2. Family Pensions and Gratuities given under Section VIII Appendix.K. Mysore Service Regulations, apply to heirs of individuals who die in action while on duty or within 5 years of being wounded in action while on duty, or from illness which is due to active operations in the Field or Foreign service, etc.

3. But there is no provision for the relief of heirs of Military Officers who meet with natural death while yet in service or very soon after retirement and I have the honor to recommend that in such cases the Scheme introduced in the Government Order under reference may be applied mutatis mutandis to the dependents of individuals in the Mysore Army.

SIR,

Fin 8004

In continuation of this office letter No.Fl.1181/28 dated 30th April 1929, suggesting the adoption of the Provisional scheme for grant of compassionate gratuity to the families of deceased civilian Officers, for the benefit of the families of deceased Military Officers as well, I have the honour to state that, under Rule. 95, Section VIII, Appendix K, Mysore Service Regulations, Officers of this Department have the right to nominate any of the Members of their family as the heir to the exclusion of others, for family -- Pensions and Gratuities and to request that they may be allowed the same right in respect of the compassionate Gratuity also.

2) Rule.13 of the Rules appended to Government Order No.Fl. 7418-77/S.&.A.252-28-4 dated 1st-3rd April 1929, lays down that, for determining the rightful claiment to the compassionate gratuity admissible under the rules, the procedure laid down in article.530, Mysore Service Regulation, should, as far as possible, be followed. I consider it desirable to allow Government Officers the right to -- nominate their heirs, one or more at their option, within the meaning of the "Family" to be defined by Government, for the purpose of these rules, particularly because the compassionate gratuity or commutted annuity is a family provision, just like Insurance and Provident Fund Amounts. In the absence of such nominations, action may be taken under the said Rule.13.

3) On a reference to the Comptroller on the subject, it was replied that "no such thing is contemplated in the order" (vide) copy of his letter No.Pen,435 dated 30th April 1929 enclosed) Hence I am addressing Government in the matter.

Early orders may kindly be obtained.

I have the honor to be,
